

Belgrade | Serbia

3 Nights / 4 Days

Day 1: Belgrade city tour with English speaking guide

Description: The oldest part of the town is situated at Belgrade fortress and Kalemegdan park, with a splendid view over New Belgrade, Zemun and Panonian Plain. It is skirted by the old Serbian quarter of Belgrade, Kosancic Crescent with its cobbled road, many elegant old houses and painters studios. Nearby is the Serbian Orthodox Cathedral built in 1837., dedicated to Archangel Michael, the Patriarchy, the Church's seat of power, the Princess Ljubica's Manor. From this point, the city spreads out in all directions: the pedestrian street of Prince Mihailo, central Republic Square dominated by a massive statue of Prince Mihailo on horseback, the National Museum and the National Theater on the same square with many popular coffee houses and restaurants around. From Prince Mihailo Street, where the atmosphere of the old times is combined with the glamour of modern times, straight line leads into Terazije square- the very center of the town dominated by hotel Moskva, a fine example of Belle Époque architecture and Terazije Fountain. Then follows the Old Palace, now home of the City Assembly, and the New Palace, now the office of the President of Serbia. Nearby is the monument of the Nobel Prize winner – Ivo Andric. The street ends in Vracar Square with the small Church of St Sava and St Sava Cathedral, one of the biggest orthodox churches.

Day 2: Fruska Gora and Gibraltar of the Danube

Description: Fruska Gora is an isolated mountain in Pannonia plain, famous for its natural beauties, vineyards and 17 monasteries built in the 15th and 16th century. Their historical value is under protection of UNESCO. Novi Sad - with the imposing Petrovaradin Fortress located across the Danube- called the "Gibraltar of the Danube" because of its strategic role through the centuries , Sremski Karlovci , on the slopes of Fruska Gora mountain and Danube river bank known for its first ever boarding school in Serbia as well as a place where the change of border lines between Hapsburg and Ottoman Empires were agreed. Nowadays it is known for its vineyards, specially for local sweet wine "Bermet" production and homemade cake called "kuglof".
