1. Most of the restaurants don't serve food after 10:30 pm, if you want to have dinner after that, be ready to sleep hungry;
2. Never ever eat in bangala road, even if you see nice decoration and packed places don't fool yourself with colors and shapes;
3. Don't eat from any kiosk even if its look yummy doesn't think to give a try except for fresh coconut juice and fruits especially the exotic ones.

WHERE TO EAT

1. Pan Yaah Restaurant

249 Prabamee Road, Kalim

With its seafront location just south of Patong Beach and looking out across the bay, as well as its classy presentation, you would not expect Pan Yaah to be what you would call a common Thai restaurant.

2. Big Chicken Restaurant

Wichit Songkram Road, Kathu. Look out for the giant chicken!

Krua Tungtong, a popular restaurant in Kathu, is better known by its nickname 'The Big Chicken.' It's easy to understand why, once you spot the enormous statue of a rooster in front of the venue by the side of the road in Kathu between Phuket Town and Patong.

3. Eat Bar and grill restaurant karon.

2501, Thanon patak, karon, mueang, Phuket District, Phuket 83100, Thailand

Small cozy place, they have like 8-10 tables ,lot of diversity , dishes are big and tastes really good ,the only negative part is the restaurant in isolated area ,you can't go walking and there isn't anything you can do there , the best way to go is with tuk tuk and return by tuk tuk or taxi .

4. Baan Rim Pa Patong

223 Prabamee Road Patong, Kathu Phuket 83150, Thailand

Great place to have a romantic dinner, amazing view of Patong Bay, Decorated with candle lights, and very good food with high prices.

If you are looking for first copy product then Jungcelyon mall is the place you can find many brands with first copy and reasonable prices (even we don't encourage the first copy but unfortunately is exist)

If you are looking for just souvenirs you can buy from small kiosk while you are walking, especially in Patong.
